This course provides an overview of the methods of elementary art education. Students explore the content areas of art education (studio art, art criticism, art history, and aesthetics) as well as art education pedagogy. The course is a hands-on methods course in which students are required to design and implement art lessons to be taught to elementary school students in educational settings.

COURSE FEE $50 (paid with tuition). Fees are used to maintain department image database, purchase student materials for special projects, and basic room supplies and equipment.

• To understand and practice appropriate curriculum and teaching methods for elementary schools
• To gain experience in creative ways to teach studio lessons and activities
• To work collaboratively with peers in the course and members of the public schools system
• To gain hands-on experience planning, implementing and evaluating arts integration unit and lesson plans
• To create an ART portfolio

TEACHING AND LEARNING METHODS

Students will participate in class discussion, readings, guest lectures, studio development and outside events. Students will prepare and teach peers in one class lesson. Students will develop a “portfolio” of lessons plans and will create cultural exemplars developed and taught by peers.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING/Evaluation Methods

Discussion Facilitation (5 points) You will be responsible for facilitating one of the week’s reading discussions by writing three discussion questions and by planning a 10-15 minute presentation or activity that addresses the week’s topic. This facilitation can include visuals (slides, videos, etc.), an activity, or a more formal presentation. This facilitation should not be a summary of the week’s readings, but should help the class to deepen their understanding of the issue.

Reading Responses (10 points) For each reading you will submit on Canvas a 2-paragraph (minimum) response to each chapter for the week’s reading. (due WEDNESDAY 2 days before class by midnight) Please answer the following: What struck you most? What do you agree/disagree with? How does this reading impact your idea(s) of art teaching?

Active Participation in Class Art Assignments (15 points) You will be responsible for participating in daily activities that include in-class artistic exercises. We will have intermittent art homework that will fall under this category.

Journal/Sketchbook (10 points) You will be responsible for creating a Visual Journal that will include journal & Sketchbook exercises, in class art exercises as well as “Explorer” assignments. This should also include examples of lessons you receive from your peers.

Gallery Visit (5 points) to become more acquainted with local contemporary art you will visit a local gallery (from approved list) and write one 2 page paper.

2 Unit Outlines/ with 3 Lesson plans each: (15 points each for a total of 30 points) You will be responsible for creating two different detailed Unit Outlines with at least three lessons plans. Please turn in the entire assignment UNSTAPLED-use a clip or folder to hold the pages together.

Unit outline: This should contain the: 1) theme; 2) goals; 3) concepts to be taught; 4) cultural exemplar(s) to be used; 5) sequence of lessons; 6) evaluation component; 7) Integration with Common Core/USOE Core Standards
1 Demonstration lesson for peers: (25 points) You will be responsible for performing a 30 minute demonstration from your newly written lesson plans to the class. You will provide all the necessary exemplars, historical references and supplies for your demonstration.

Missed Class/make up work: Students will have the opportunity to make up TWO homework assignments if needed and TWO in-class art projects due to missing class. This must be completed within two weeks of the original due date. Late work should be prearranged if possible. Revised work/ new work may be submitted for a higher score up to two weeks after original graded assignment was returned. Late work is not eligible for revision.

PLEASE NOTE: Due to the hands-on nature of this class, attendance is mandatory. Full and active participation is expected. All classes will start promptly at 9:40am in room 362 unless otherwise noted. This participation will enhance your learning and helps to support the entire class. You must be present and involved in the discussion to earn participation points. Late assignments will be reduced for each day late. Any absence beyond 2 will lower your final grade from missing participation. Please leave cell phones OFF during class.
