The University of Utah, through its Department of Art & Art History or through its Marriott Library, or through another of its departments or operating units (collectively, "University"), intends to create a collection that includes artworks, photographs, videos, personal essays, narratives, or other creative works documenting youth-created activist art (“Youth Activist Art Archive”).

I hereby consent to and authorize the University to use, without compensation to me, the copyrightable work that I am submitting in connection with this Agreement in the Youth Activist Art Archive (the "Work").

The University and its agents and licensees shall have the non-exclusive right to publish, reproduce, exhibit, broadcast, distribute (including via television, radio, internet platforms), display, make available for download, or otherwise use the Work. The University will provide proper attribution to me in its exercise of the rights granted herein. The rights described herein are irrevocable, worldwide and perpetual. I hereby release, discharge, and covenant not to sue the University, its agents, successors, and assigns from any and all claims arising out of or in connection with the use of the Work, including but not limited to any claims of defamation or invasion of privacy.

I represent and warrant that I am, or the minor child named below is, the sole and exclusive owner of the copyright in and to the Work and that I have the full right and authority to grant the rights herein granted, and that the rights granted herein shall not infringe upon any copyright or any other right of any third party.
